February 28, 2011 (All Across Texas) – My Plates announces that 7-character personalized license plates will be available starting March 7 and for a limited time only.

The new 7-character plate category is called Freedom. With 7 letters and/or numbers, Texans have more Freedom to spell out a personalized message on their license plates. Since 1965, Texans have had only six characters or fewer available for personalization, so March 7 has been a long time coming.

7-character sales begin Monday, March 7 at 7am and end Monday, March 14 at 7am.

- Starts Monday March 7, 2011 at 7am
- Ends: Monday March 14, 2011 at 7am
- That is:
 - 7 days
 - 168 hours
 - 10,080 minutes of 7 character Freedom

7-character Freedom plates are available on 20 background designs offered by My Plates. The plates are priced at:

- 1 year $395.00
- 5 year $695.00 ($139.00 a year)
- 10 year $795.00 ($79.50 a year)

Note the 10-year plate is the best value, and remember that you can put your plate on any vehicle registered to you. That means if you change cars within the 10-year period, you can transfer the plate to your new vehicle.

My Plates will have layaway as an option available to our customers in time for the sale of Freedom plates.

Not sure what 7-character message you want? Buy a Freedom gift card during the 7 for 7 event, then you can use it to purchase a plate later, even after 7 for 7 is over.

Order at www.myplates.com. All orders are first come, first served. All plate messages are subject to approval by the Texas Department of Motor Vehicles.

More than 7000 Texans have already registered their interest in 7-character plates and have been waiting to hear this date. You can still register for updates on 7 for 7.

Texans have bought more than 38,000 My Plates since November 2009, putting more than $3.1M in the state general revenue fund.
